CARS AND COFFEE AT RESTLESS OAKS

The weather gods smiled upon us yet again for our second Cars and Coffee on Saturday, July 10th at Restless Oaks in McElhattan. Thanks to all you Keystone members – both old, new and potential – who joined us for a delicious breakfast. We had a grand time getting caught up with all our various summer activities and discussing our future Keystone events. In attendance were: Tom Casales, Terry Shultz, Jim and Dewane Stuck, Dave and Cherish Crust, Dave and Carol Durrwachter, Mike and Monica Vaccaro, Doayne Chartreau and Bob and Gwen Cornell. A very special welcome to new faces Patrick and Megan McDaniel and Jim Wehr and a 'welcome- back-after-too-long away' to Mark Cloud.

Please mark your calendars for our next Cars and Coffee on October 16th at the Eatin' Park on North Atherton St. in State College. We've had great turnouts at our first two breakfasts, so State College and Bellefonte members – don't let us down!!!!!!

September ride to Bloomsburg

Hear yee hear yee step right up and into all your Porsche go fast machines and come along with us to a new far east destination. On Sunday September the 19th we'll start this ride at Eric's Black Walnut's shop around 0930 for Coffey and doughnut's. His shop is on rt 550 1 mile east of Bellefonte on the right. Then when we are all awake and ready to zoom off, 10 am or so, we'll all head off over hill and dale towards our prize the Iron Dale Inn in Bloomsburg. JD Davis will be our host and cook with a great picnic waiting for us. The Iron Dale Inn is situated along a nice stream with lot's of shade trees to keep the temperature at bay. I'll have a few history lessons about the area along the way to help the ride go by quickly. If anyone wants to stay at the beautiful Irondale for the night, call JD at 570-389-0100 for your reservations web site is www.irondaleinn.com. Dave Dix and I have the weather Gods in our pockets so that won't be an issue??!! For the eastern region Keystone people we plan to meet up with all of you at Mays drive-in, just on the east side of Lewisburg and the river on rt 45 and rt 405. My guess is around 1115. There's a large parking lot there to gather the Porsche's for the second leg to Bloomsburg. Please call Randy for a head count so JD has all the correct amount of fiddles waiting for us. Email Randy at rwkilmer@netscape.net or call anytime on my cell 814-777-3063.

State College's 25th annual Last cruise

Although hot, the local Keystone PCA was well positioned under some nice shady trees and breezes throughout the day which defiantly took some of the heat off. As far as the Import class of 1974 to current went, the competition was Red hot!

1st place was taken by a new Nissan GTR, 2nd to Charlie Farris in his near perfect Mercedes, and 3rd to Bob Hufnagle for his very awesome, rare & perfect Lotus. Although we collectively came up empty on awards we always come in 1st place on fun, camaraderie, and just a plain old good time together.

We were visited by many PCA faithful throughout the day including Jennifer Studenny (Eric's sister) and her friend Eric, Shawna & Tom Hipple with their son & daughter, and many more "friends & family" throughout the day.

Of an especially cute nature was how fascinated

Logan Hipple - age 8 - was of the Porsches. After asking several questions (of amazingly technical nature for an 8 year old) at one point he asked if he could move one of my chairs. Saying "yes", much to my amazement he pulled it up to the rear of my 911 and stared into the engine compartment for over 20 minutes! This is NOT a posed photo!!

Start 'em young! I feel a future Keystone PCA member in our future!
